Associate Principal's Column

Recently I attended a "Home Reading" session for our school run by our very passionate reading coach, Sandra Green. Sandra spoke with fond remembrance of the reading time that we can have with our children in helping them to grasp the world of books. It made me reflect and think about the time we spend with our children.

As parents we spend a lot of our time trying to be a good parent, doing whatever we can for our children whilst balancing the needs and demands of a busy life. Increasingly at times you might feel like a manager – managing a household, managing time, managing a job and managing children's behaviour.

So often, today, we hear about the costs of having children. These are usually described as economic, social or career costs. We hear of the sacrifices made by adults in their lives as a result of having children.

It is sometimes easy to lose sight of what is important. In the middle of life's busy pace, take the time out to reflect on the ways your child contributes to your life rather than on what else you can do for your child. Children enrich our lives in so many ways.

Children give parents:

- Unconditional love and admiration just for being you
- Trust that you are the strongest, wisest and bravest person in the world
- The chance to be a child again through sharing in the magic and wonder of their emerging world

- The chance to experience an intensity of emotion and range of strengths and skills that may otherwise have remained hidden from you
- The chance to reflect on your own values, attitudes and assumptions about the world
- The chance to re-experience the joy and pleasure to be found in children's play
- The chance to share in their fun and laughter
- The chance to revisit your own childhood
- The chance to take time out from being a grown up

One of the greatest gifts parents can give themselves is time with their children. Take some time each day to laugh, cry, play, dream, wonder and explore with your child.

Nut-Related Products in Schools

Caningeraba is not a "nut free" school. The implementation of blanket food bans or attempts to prohibit the entry of particular food substances into schools is not supported by Education Queensland, Queensland Health and the Australasian Society of Clinical Immunology and Allergy (ASCIA). Schools should not make claims that their school is 'peanut/nut-free' as this is impossible to guarantee and may lead to a false sense of security about exposure to allergens.

We do, however, have a number of students who are allergic to nut-related products and may have an anaphylactic reaction if they do come in contact with such products. To ensure a safe environment for all students, alternative to nut-related products are preferred. We also strongly encourage no food and drink sharing at school and promote hand-washing before and after eating. Your assistance with this request does minimise students' exposure to potential allergens within the school environment, thus creating a safe environment for all.

Cross Country 2017

Last Wednesday saw the staging of our annual school cross country. As is always the case we had some rain...thankfully this year not until 2pm when the day was completed! Well over 1000 kids from Prep to Yr. 6 competed with great determination. It was a day that certainly epitomised that great Caningeraba spirit. Congratulations to every single child that took part. The winning house on the day was BLUEGUM. Winners and placegetters from each respective race were as follows:

| RACE | 1st | 2nd | 3rd |

The top 6 finishers in the 10-12 age groups will now be invited to the Oceanic Cross Country Championships to be held at Pizzey Park on Thursday 25 May. Carnival information and associated paperwork will be sent home with selected students this Friday. An optional training session will take place @ 7:00am on Thursday 18 May meeting at North Burleigh Surf Club with Mr Carlton.

A huge thank you to the vast number of parents who came along to support our kids. As I said on the day, our Yr. 6 sports leaders were magnificent in helping to make the day run so smoothly. Well done house captains! Finally as always it was my pleasure to work with our superb teaching staff that makes my job as convenor as hassle free as possible.

Next stop Sports Day....all aboard!

Student Absence Line

If a student is absent or you know they are going to be away, can you please contact the school absence line on 5568 6377. If a message is not received, you will then receive an SMS that you can respond to instead. As well as advising your teacher of a student's absence, it is important that you let the office know, as teachers can't record the reason on our system. This is done by office staff. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Library News

Thank you to the Engleby family for their kind donation of books to the Library.

School Banking News

Congratulations to classes PM, 3O and 6M on being this week's bankers of the week. There are now 16 School Banking days left before the end of Term 3 and your opportunity to get enough entries into the banks major competition of a trip to Japan.

Worried? Sad? Hurt? Upset? Tips that could help...

Children and young people have access to lots of social media, TV, movies and games. While the wonderful array of content available offers many positive learning opportunities, there is some content that may have potentially harmful effects on young people.

Keeping an eye on what media children and young people are accessing, and any changes in their behaviour, is a good way to help avoid any long-term worries down the track.

Kids Helpline (KHL) has put together Tip Sheets that suggest ways to help manage worry and concerns some may experience due to exposure to some media content. The three sheets are audience specific for:

- children
- teenagers and young adults, and
- teachers and parents.

They include tips about managing individual worries and about how to help others. KHL is Australia's only free, private and confidential 24/7 phone and online counselling service for young people aged 5 to 25.

Talking with KHL can help. We're here 24/7. Any time. Any reason. Free call 1800 55 1800 or view the link below.
