Learning Goals

Where are we going with our learning?

At Caningeraba we ensure that our students know where they are going with their learning by communicating learning goals. A learning goal is a statement of what students will know and/or be able to do. This could be in the form of vocabulary, facts, concepts, skills, strategies, and/or processes.

For example:

- We are learning to identify the main idea in a text.
- We are learning to justify our opinion based on facts.
- We are learning to work as a team.

Learning goals help us to make decisions about how well students are progressing and what they need to learn next. They provide a shared clarity of learning direction and communicate the things that students need to know and do to be successful.

Success Criteria

What do students need to know and do to achieve the learning goal? How do they know this?

Teachers share success criteria with their students so that they have a clear picture of what they need to demonstrate to achieve the learning goal. Success criteria is often in the form of a list of points or a checklist. Communicating success criteria to students encourages independent thinking, provides a framework for giving effective feedback and creates a pathway to success. Success criteria moves learning forward by encouraging children to see themselves as owners of their own learning.

My Reading Goal -

- is to read fluently in phrases with expression, attending to punctuation.

I can do this by:

- reading carefully, making my reading sound like talking
- reading meaningful phrases (grouped words)
- reading all punctuation - commas, full-stops etc.
- reading with expression to reflect the author's purpose or emotions in characters

The example shown is a reading learning goal and associated success criteria. The dot points on the right make it clear to the children what they need to work on so that they can achieve the learning goal.

Through the process of communicating learning goals and success criteria, our students have an idea of where the learning is going, what is expected of them and what they need to do to get there.

School Banking News

Congratulations to classes PB, 3P and 5O on being our awesome banking classes of the week. Just a reminder to continue banking every Tuesday to ensure you get your 15 deposits in by the end of Term 3. This will allow you to be in the running for the Commonwealth Banks major prize of the trip to Japan. Please also note that the bank deposit slips must be filled out in pen (not pencil).

Please note that school banking will still run as usual next Tuesday 13 June, even though the Senior Athletics Carnival is on.

Fight 4 Youth Incorporated – School Holiday Workshops

Chappy Leisa runs a Youth and Family Centre at Currumbin, along with other qualified Chaplains, Youth Workers, Coaches, Instructors and Counsellors. It is open every afternoon for classes (boxing, dancing, circus) as well as offering counselling, music and art therapy, education support and a Friday Night Youth Club (for primary school-aged children).

These holidays we are running a school holiday workshop, from 9:00-12:00 Monday – Friday (morning tea is included) for only $10.00 per day. Week one will be boxing and circus skills (acro-balance, juggling, hula hooping and more). Week 2 will be dancing and drama workshops. You don't have to choose, you can try out everything!

Fight 4 Youth is at 10/44a Currumbin Creek Road, Currumbin (near Currumbin Primary School and PBC). Bookings are essential for the school holiday workshops as we can only take a limited number of children.

Contact Chappy Leisa at fight4youth@outlook.com.
